Headline:
Brightening up after a cloudy start on Sunday. Trending warmer.

Today:
Often cloudy to start, with fog on the hills, but this lifting and breaking through the morning. There will be good sunny spells for the afternoon, though increasingly hazy. Warm with light winds, although breezier and cooler on the coast. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Some hazy evening sunshine, but cloud soon thickening. Mostly light rain arriving in the north by midnight, this pushing south through the early hours. Breezy on the coast. Mild. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Monday:
Cloudy start with patchy light rain for most. Rain will gradually ease through the morning, with some sunny spells developing through the afternoon. Feeling warm in light winds. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Tuesday and Wednesday, largely dry with sunny spells after early patchy fog clears. Warm or very warm. Similar on Thursday, but cloudier with a risk of heavy thundery showers.
